maintained close liaison with the Autonomous Mongolian Government, but was obliged to remain in Ninghsia to rehabilitate its troops. Its high morale and the story of its exploits were reported by the Ninghsia authorities to Northwest Military and Political headquarters, with the result that the unit was incorporated into the Ninghsia-Shensi Bandit Suppression Army. The leaders in this organization are as follows:*

LI Shou-hsin, commander of Shensi-Ninghsia Border Region Bandit Suppression Headquarters (SNBRBSH).

Boyandelger (PAO Kuei-t'ing), deputy commander of SNBRBSH.

PAI Kuang-ch'in, chief of staff of SNBRBSH. He is a native of Shuluk'o Banner and a graduate of the Japanese Military Academy.

Suhebagator, commander of 1 Brigade of SNBRBSH. He is a native of Jirum League.

Commanders of the 2 and 3 Brigades had not been announced in early September 1949.

4. On 8 September the SNBRBSH launched an attack against the Chinese Communists, and recaptured Yenchih (107-24, 37-49) on 12 September 1949. Before the attack, Suhebagator announced his determination never to surrender to the Communists, and to maintain close contact with the Mongolian Autonomous Government.

* [REDACTED] Comment. There have probably been many changes in the numbers, location and personnel of the units mentioned in this report. Additional information on the identifiable personalities is available in the following references:
